You've Found It

EUREKA ERGONOMIC® was founded on a simple principle:

The human body was designed to move.

Unfortunately, people don't move as much as they could or should—especially while working, which is when a vast amount of time is spent sitting.

Our company's founder was inspired by the California state seal's motto "Eureka"—Greek for "I have found it"—which was exclaimed after the discovery of gold that led to the fabled 19th century Gold Rush.

His "Eureka moment" came when he realized he found a way to simultaneously:

Get people to move more at work.

Give consumers unrivaled value for best-in-class ergonomic office products.

Within these pages, you can find out more about our stylish, durable and easy-to-use products, as well as our commitment to making them with high-quality and environmentally-friendly materials.

Now it's time for you to create your own Eureka moments.

If you have any questions, please visit our Website or call our world-class customer service and product support teams (see back cover for details).
